

PAW PRINTS

Stories & Poems

These stories & poems you are about to read all come to you from the students of Arthur County High School. Creative, exciting, odd, romantic, and fresh describe these stories for they are all one of a kind.

Remember if you have a story, poem, or anything written that you believe is one of a kind we urge you to submit them to the publishers of Paw Prints.

Thank you, we look forward to your exciting writings you have crafted.

Send to:

Isaac Buitron

Kelsey Channer

Shania Macomber

Nikita Pettit

Mila Schroeder

&

Mrs. Deola Thompson

We, and all others who believe in freedom as deeply as we do, would rather die on our feet than live on our knees.

-Franklin D. Roosevelt

